INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE FIRST XV RUGBY FINAL - Our aim is to have a strong and positive presence from the school. To be the 'extended bench' for the team – all there as part of the larger team.

Being King's men at the First XV Final on Saturday 17 August

Alcohol and smoking/vaping free space

Orderly conduct is expected

Security guards are present to support a good game

We are to stay in one of two places:

- The deadball area at the Stuart Street end
- The sideline on the Queens Drive side towards the green belt

There is no movement to the other end's deadball area at half time

We want you looking sharp in uniform and making a statement through the quality of our appearance, as well as our conduct.

There will be school haka together – get involved with passion and pride

Total silence in goal kicking and lineouts. Do not jeer, boo or provoke the opposition or react to opposition provocation. We will be above that sort of behaviour

Kickoff is at 1pm. If there is any change to the kickoff time or location, it will be communicated through the school and in social media
