HE WAKA KŌTUIA

In the first week of Term 3 'He Waka Kōtūia' (the King's and Queen's Kapa Haka Group) travelled to Napier for the New Zealand Secondary Schools' Kapa Haka Competition. He Waka Kōtūia qualified for this by coming 2nd at Hautonga (Otago/Southland Secondary Schools Kapa Haka Competition) last year. They were among the best in the country, where the vast majority of groups were from the North Island. Tuesday and Wednesday were spent watching many of the stunning groups from other parts of the country at Pettigrew Arena, and polishing off their singing and movements for the big performance. Thursday was the big day and the nervous energy was intense! After much preparation they finally hit the National stage and gave it their absolute all. All of the tutors in the group agreed that it was the best performance He Waka Kōtūia had ever put on stage. Nevertheless, the competition is fierce, and as inspiring and beautiful as our performance was, it still wasn't enough to make a significant placing. What was very pleasing to see was that all of our rangatahi kept their heads up and vowed not to give in to disappointment. They knew they had done a stellar job. On the Friday we spent the whole day watching the Top 8 groups perform, and the students were able to see some absolutely phenomenal performances. This experience is worth its pure weight in gold for the exposure alone. On the Saturday we travelled back home to Ōtepoti, tutors with tired faces and students with tired bodies.

All of this could not have been possible without the amazing work of the Tutors, first and foremost Komene Cassidy and Paulette Tamati-Eliffe, they are the partners in crime who hold everything together. Cherie Ford and Angelina Kiore who take care of EVERYTHING that needs to be organised and look after the Queen's students, Margie Bell who looks after all of the Kākahu (Uniforms), Lucy Smith who hand-made all of the Paki (Boys shoulder garments) and Jonny Waters for supporting the kakahu preparation and tamoko stenciling, driver, general Pokemon hunter and dogs body as well as looking after the King's boys.

We would like to thank you for all of the support given, both inside and outside of King's High School. Ngā mihi nui ki a koutou!

He Waka Kōtūia - KI TE HOE!

FAIR UPDATE

There are only 36 days left until the fair.

Thank you to the businesses, families and individuals who have kindly donated goods so far.

Unfortunately we had to cancel 10 stalls at our recent fair meeting because we couldn't get helpers to run them, and we also have some other stalls at risk of being cancelled. So if anyone is able to help at any of the following stalls could they please contact me urgently: Balloon van (1 person or 2 people job share); Books (3 people); Bouncy castle obstacle course (4 people or 8 people job share); Café (4 students who have completed a barista course); Chocolate wheel (2 people, or 4 people job share); Dunk the teacher/student/celebrity (volunteers to be dunked please); Fizzy drinks (1 person or 2 people job share); Guess the number of lollies in the jar (1 person or 2 people job share); Hamburgers - vegetarian and meat (4 people); Lucky dips (2 people or 4 people job share); Clothing (5 people); Popcorn (1 person or 2 people job share); Raffles (4 people); Silent Auction (2 people); Tombola (2 people); Toys and games (3 people or 6 people job share); White elephant (4 people or 8 people job share).

These stalls all have a coordinator who will organise everything, but they just don't have enough helpers to run the stalls. So please check your diaries to see if you can spare 1½ or 3 hours on Saturday 10th September. The fair runs from 11am until 2pm.

If anyone is interested in helping with container duty (at King's), for storing donated goods in the mornings or after school, could they please contact me.

If anyone is able to lend us some trestle tables to use at the fair could they please also contact me.

We are running a cake and cupcake competition on Friday 9th September to get donations of food for the fair. This competition is open to any amateur baker. Please read the information below and spread the word. (If you'd like a copy of our competition poster, or fair poster, for your workplace then please email me and I will send it to you).

Thanks.
