YEAR 13 LEAVERS GEAR - All orders and payment for leavers gear must be in at the office by Thursday 7th September 3pm. We have a rugby type polo ($80.50) or L/S T shirt ($46). Designs are available for viewing at the office.

DEFENCE CAREERS - Would you like the opportunity to play with our defence force simulator weapons. They don't fire bullets, however they are the same weapons that Defence personnel use, that fire an invisible laser. They make noise and have a recoil similar to the real thing (using compressed air). The students will have to go through loading and reloading, however it is completely safe. It is open to all students (and families) between 6:30pm and 8:30pm. It will be on 07 September Dunedin at 211 St Andrew St (HMNZS Toroa)

AGRICULTURE AS A CAREER - The Jeff Farm Training Award 2018 for Lincoln University. This is a scholarship for those interested in a career involving agriculture. If you are interested in attending Lincoln and keen on a career in farming then you should investigate this opportunity. See Ms Schaumann for details.

OTAGO UNIVERSITY COURSING - This is advance warning that the Liaison team from Otago University will be in school on the 15th September to assist with choosing papers for Otago University next year. Students will attend a 30 minute session according to degree area. A programme will be drawn up prior to their visit and students will be advised via the notices of the timetable. If you are intending to go to Otago next year and have not yet firmed up the subject you are interested in pursuing, you should see Ms Schaumann before the 15th.

SENIOR CRICKET - All senior cricketers have practice on Thursday's after school. Training is in King's High School PE gear.
